Here we confirm that our above mentioned products comply with the restrictive requirements of the European regulation on biocides 528/2012 regarding environmental compatibility (toxicity to aquatic organisms, biodegradability, long-term effects).

If used as intended the products are ecologically safe and do not cause any unacceptable environmental impacts. Basic data concerning the environmental properties of the contained ingredients are given in chapter 12 of the material safety data sheets. Further information necessary to evaluate the contribution of the individual products to waste water parameters are available on request.
